WALLABY SQUAD

Preparation for Australia's World Cup rugby campaign has begun. With eight regulars injured, the Wallabies backline will look very different and creates great opportunities for players who might not otherwise have had the chance to play in the upcoming Tests against Ireland, England, France, New Zealand and South Africa. Australian Rugby Union managing director John O'Neill acknowledges that the Wallabies have a big job ahead after poor defensive displays by each of the Australian Super 12 teams this year. However, Eddie Jones isn't overly concerned – he observes that when the Wallabies were on tour in Argentina and Europe they conceded just two tries in four games. "Our immediate past record is pretty sharp and that was one of the priorities to come out of the tour."

The Wallaby squad has now been announced, with three uncapped players. Morgan Turinui (NSW), Lote Tuqiri (NSW) and Scott Fava (ACT) have been included in the Wallaby squad that will prepare for the first Test against Ireland in Perth on June 7, followed by the games against Wales (Sydney) and England (Melbourne). Joe Roff and Chris Latham will share the fullback and wing spots. Nathan Grey and Roff will be the back-up five-eighths to Elton Flatley. Ben Darwin is likely to move from tighthead to loosehead. Owen Finegan was overlooked and has been put on an intensive training schedule. Jones rated George Smith, Wendell Sailor and Phil Waugh as this season's big improvers and said Tuqiri might eventually end up as an international outside-centre.

THE SQUAD: Brendan Cannon, Ben Darwin, Scott Fava, Elton Flatley, David Giffin, George Gregan (capt), Nathan Grey, Steve Kefu, Toutai Kefu (vc), Chris Latham, David Lyons, Patricio Noriega, Glenn Panoho, Jeremy Paul, Joe Roff, Wendell Sailor, Nathan Sharpe, George Smith, Lote Tuqiri, Morgan Turinui, Daniel Vickerman, Phil Waugh, Chris Whitaker, Bill Young.

Joe Roff and Chris Latham were named joint winners of the Super 12 Player of the Series on 26 May. Roff and Latham both polled 15 points (voting by referees). Next in line were Phil Waugh (14), Mat Rogers and David Lyons (11 each.) Matt Giteau was named rookie of the year.

ADELAIDE FALCONS LIVE ON TV

The game between the Adelaide Falcons and the Darwin Mozzies on 28 June will be shown live on the ABC, although unfortunately only in the NT. Email the ABC in Adelaide on abctvsa@your.abc.net.au and suggest showing it in Adelaide too, either live or on replay that night. Can someone get in touch with Fordey and get him to tape it for us?!

AUCKLAND BLUES WIN 2003 SUPER 12

The Auckland Blues have won the Super 12 competition for the third time. After beating the ACT Brumbies in the semi-final, the Blues defeated their compatriots the Crusaders by 21 to 17 in the final at Eden Park on 23 May 2003.

ALL BLACK SQUAD

The All Blacks squad for its three Tests next month has been picked. The 26-man squad contains 11 Crusaders, 8 Blues, 4 Hurricanes, 2 Highlanders and 1 Chief. Veteran team members Christian Cullen and Andrew Mehrtens have been left out, as has former captain Taine Randell, Jonah Lomu, (recovering from a kidney problem), Scott Robertson (international player of 2002) and hooker Mark Hammett. The All Blacks will play England, Wales and France before beginning their Tri-Nations campaign on July 19.

SCRUMBAG

The Pool Night on 3 May was a fantastic success. The rules were quite simple - 2 tables, 24 doubles teams and a knockout competition. To make things a little more interesting, however, there were a couple of rules:- no swearing, no drinking or smoking over the table, no cheating and most importantly no arguing with the judge. Any of the above resulted in the offender having to cough up a gold coin for the fine tin. Thanks very much to Tedgie, who was paying his fines in advance and in bulk, and to Meara for wielding the fine tin with such uncompromising vigour. The most profitable game was (no surprise) Ben Suttell and Jack Walton against Hamish and Ray. The club thanks them for their generous contributions to the fine tin in that round. The grand final saw Boof and Jacko come up against new comers John and Chris. Whilst it was a close game, the newbies were just no match for the veterans, and Boof and Jacko walked away $100 the richer. Thanks to all for a great night, and particularly to Emma Curran for her continuing wonderful efforts.

Congratulations to Jeremy & Sian Uther on the birth of their son Nicholas on Monday 12th May, at 7lb 10oz. Jeremy was still jumping from one foot to the other days later, and was wandering around Fordey's farewell happily chanting "Boy!" over and over again. Another son to the Crocs! The OC Under 8s in 2010 are going to be fierce.

footytips.com.au

We have a winner! Narrowly edging out the opposition, Belinda Wade came the top of our Super 12 footy tipping competition and kindly shared her prize (a slab) with the rest of her sisters-in-rugby, the Frocs. The Frocs dominated the competition, with Candice Daniel leading the fray for most of the season, only to bomb out in the last few of rounds, at which point Imogen Hume snatched the lead. A last minute surge from Richie Jasko (winner in 2001) was impressive, but Belinda's was better. With Neil and James Bradley finishing with exactly the same score, we suspect foul play – but who was tipping for whom? The wooden spoon goes to Andy MacDougall, who we think may have just stopped tipping about half way through the season.

1. Belinda Wade 46
2. Richard Jasko 45
3. Imogen Hume 43
4. James Bradley 43
5. Neil Bradley 43

Fordey's farewell at the Astor was loud, busy and merry – like Fordey himself. Peter has moved to the NT, and the usual suspects gathered for a few "quiet" ales to see him off. Fordey will be sorely missed both on and off the pitch. He is pictured here charging with the ball, Gavin Pfister in centre frame. (Photo courtesy of Joyce Spry, OC vs Elizabeth, 20 July 1991). No party is complete until someone is rushed to casualty. In this case it was our own Social Director, Emma Curran, who ended up with a broken wrist (or something like that). It seems she was dancing with Graham Raymond. He spun her energetically, but was distracted by Cam's engaging conversation and forgot to catch her as she spun back. The Crocs were due to play their fiercest rivals, Onkaparinga at Onkaparinga, the next day. One drunk at the shindig was busily predicting that with the amount of beer being quaffed the Crocs' lion-hearts would be playing mrowl when they should be playing RRROAR. (It loses something in prose.) In any event, with a pur or a growl they won, and we understand that they played particularly well. One mate described Fordey as playng "the game of his life". He was still drunk and in borrowed boots.

You may be familiar with Master Bates the Cock, the 4th Grade Mascot. The lucky player to billet the chook each week is supposed to take him everywhere. We suspect some of them are cheating - the Cock does not get around much. (Isn't that an age old complaint ...) At least Brenn Sinnott takes his chicken related responsibilities seriously. He is pictured here water-skiing (sort of) with the damned thing. (The first grade also have a mascot they take where-ever they go. They call it 'beer'.)

OCs presents the best player across all grades on a home game with the College Cup. Club members are then responsible to keep it filled. The winner of the cup on 24 May was Ryan "Boo Boo" Neilson. Not content to fill it with beer, his kind, kind friends experimented with vodka & orange, Bundy, crème de menthe and Baileys, looking for the right mix to push Boo Boo over the edge. In the end, it was the sparkling burgundy that did it.

The following letter has lobbed up on our proverbial doorstep. We're not sure for whom it is intended, nor specifically what it is about. But, hell, we could all do with a little re-education of the Laws.

Dear Kneel

Law 16 (7) Unsuccessful end to a ruck

- (a) A ruck ends unsuccessfully when the ball becomes unplayable and a scrum is ordered. The team that moving forward immediately before the ball became unplayable in the ruck throws in the ball. If neither team was moving forward, or if the referee cannot decide which team was moving forward before the ball became unplayable in the ruck, the team that was moving forward before the ruck began throws in the ball. If neither Team was moving forward, then the attacking team throws in the ball.
- (b) Before the referee blows the whistle for a scrum, the referee allows a reasonable amount of time for the ball to emerge, especially if either team is moving forward. If the ruck stops moving, or if the referee decides that the ball will probably not emerge within a reasonable time, the referee must order a scrum.

It's strange how rugby creeps into our lives. One of the Frocs is currently dating a gentleman who is avidly fixated with Britney Spears. That in itself is sick enough, without him seeking to introduce it to the bedroom. The Froc in question concedes the point only this far: he is permitted to call her "Britney" in bed when the Frocs have lost that week. The Frocs have been playing well, certainly, but not quite well enough to keep Britney at bay. At least Ian is having fun.

Speaking of the Frocs, they will be trying to sell you chocolate around the clubrooms as a fundraising effort. As always, the chocolates are also being sold by their friends and families in their neighbourhoods and workplaces. We quote the following email from Amanda's husband, Scott, to his workmates:

Those of you who have met my demure wife may find this hard to believe, but she plays women's rugby. The Old Collegians Women's Rugby Team, otherwise known as the Frocs, need your support. I have Freddo and Caramelo chocolates for $1 each - you know the drill. Women, this is your chance to support your sisters who are blazing a trail for all women in a traditionally male sporting arena. Guys, this involves women wrestling in the mud - trust me, you want to support this too.

SARU are flogging off corporate boxes to the Falcons game at Hindmarsh Stadium on 13 June 2003. If you're sick of watching the game from the cheap seats, get in touch with Ted Apted ASAP on 0409 474 868. The boxes are $300 each, which works out to $20 a seat.

DIVISION 1

3 MAY 2003 – OLD COLLEGIANS 20 v SOUTHERN SUBURBS 28

Numerous rule infringements cost our Firsts dearly in our match against Southern Suburbs at Tregenza on 3rd May. Souths' total of 28 points comprised seven penalty goals and only one try, while we scored three tries.

We won the ball from Souths' kick off, won sequent phases to carry play into their quarter, and soon scored a converted try. After this, our forwards won a good share of ball from lineouts and scrums, giving our inside backs chances to set up attacking moves. Simon Callaghan and Stewart Douglas showed growing confidence in themselves, dictating the direction of play to advantage many times. The ball moved well along the back line. Our forwards met stubborn resistance in mauls and rucks, and although we did not dominate this part of play, we were good enough to prevent Souths from breaking free inside our quarter. The passage of play that ended with their scoring a try began with an intercept and proceeded with retention in phase play, before the player crossed our line. Other scores in the first half were three penalty goals kicked by Souths and one to us, kicked by Juan Aguiar.

Our competent defense prevented Souths from scoring any tries in the second half. For the most part, we tackled well and forced their fast men into error. Although our own attack was not perfect in the handling, passing and backing-up aspects, we looked the better side generally. Ben Hamer scored a try near the corner after we did well to get the ball out wide. Then came periods of play when Souths made forays into our territory and, in these times, Souths kicked four goals from penalties. Needing to score at least 14 points to win in the closing stages of the game, we pressed hard but only scored one more try when M. Cox grounded the ball after a good back line rush.

10 MAY 2003 – WOODVILLE 14 v OLD COLLEGIANS 20

Our Firsts won their first match of the season when they met Woodville at Gleneagles on 10th May, established an early lead and shielded it against dogged opposition during a rainy second half. We started well. We took possession and retained it for long periods so that most of the play during the first half was in Woodville territory. It was good to see the forwards get to the loose ball quickly this week and provide good support for each other and the rest of the team, giving Woodville few chances to turnover.

The opposition only looked dangerous when they won set play and their inside backs tried to make breaks. This was as far as they got on most occasions, as our tackling and defense withstood the strain solidly. In one instance, the Woodville five eighth kicked long to where Andy McDougall made good ground, caught the ball safely as he usually does, continued on at speed through the hapless defense and grounded for the try. Juan Aguiar converted. Chris Walker scored our second try, which was the culmination of a good team rush. Woodville hit back when they won a lineout adjacent to the goal line and carried the ball over. The other first half score was a penalty goal kicked by Juan.

The second half saw a more even tussle. Woodville strengthened their tenacity and held territorial advantage early in the piece, but neither side handled the wet conditions well. Generally, our standard of play was not as good as it was in the first term as we struggled to control the ball. There were many interruptions to the flow of play due to rule infringements and mishandling of the ball. There was one spell when we gave away a series of penalties in our quarter and Woodville took various options to score tries from these chances. This tested our defense and we performed adequately for quite a while until our opponents finally broke through for a converted try. With only one point in our favour at this juncture, we had to sharpen our attack, and, although the level of play from both sides was ordinary, we did score one more try to end the match six points ahead. Andy McDougall, Richard Czeglik and Ben Hamer were among the good players.

17 MAY 2003 – ELIZABETH (5 or thereabouts) v OLD COLLEGIANS (Lots. About 40)

No match report, due to bad weather and Elizabeth being sooooo far away. We won. Not elegantly, but thoroughly.

24 MAY 2003 – OLD COLLEGIANS 30 v BURNSIDE 21

The Firsts were hosts to Burnside at Tregenza on 24th May and, although we did not dictate the manner of play throughout the match, we displayed enough pugnacity to score five tries, winning the encounter by 9 points. Now that we have started winning games, we must climb the ladder and move into the top four group, securing a spot in the finals as we head through the second round of ties. Every point will be valuable.

We gained possession at the start and confined Burnside to their area for a lengthy spell. We kept the ball moving as we held on to it through phase play and soon spun it out wide, from where it went back to Simon Callaghan who made the vital break for our first try.

Shortly after the restart, Burnside looked threatening when they broke out into open space but we countered strongly, forced the turnover and went on the attack. However, this was transitory because Burnside won a lineout later, retained the ball from two phases and broke through for a converted try. They soon added another converted try. This occurred during a time when we fared poorly. We had too little ball, lost it in mauls and rucks, while Burnside showed speed through the centres and backed up well.

The tide turned late in the first half when our forwards and backs combined to produce some fast attacking rushes. We drove forward strongly, giving Burnside little chance to counter. During this period, Ben Hamer scored two tries and Richard Czeglik scored one. We did not convert any of our four first half tries.

Burnside had us on the defensive in the early stages of the second half. They were able to win turnovers and retain the ball in phase play. Their reward came when they worked the ball wide, making enough room to cross the goal line for their third try, which they converted to give them a one-point lead. About mid way through the term, our fortune turned again. Juan Aguiar tackled one of the opposition's fastest runners, we gathered the loose ball and the ensuing play saw Andy McDougall break free, beat defenders and dash away to score a try for Juan to convert successfully. In the remaining time we produced some of our best rugby so far this season, in both attack and defense.

Ben Hamer, Ryan Nielson and Christian Tedge had played well throughout the match, giving inspiration to others. Andy McDougall and Paul McFadden were other good players. True, we failed to score any more tries, but the promise of good things to come is there if we keep improving and play well for 80 minutes a match. Juan kicked a penalty goal to give us the 30-21 victory.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN!

Hail to the club's new captains!

Club Captain - Richard Czeglik
First Grade Captain - Christian Tedge
Second Grade Captain - Rob Porteous
Crocs Captain - Jo Suttell
Women's Captain - Tiana Hume

On enquiring as to the identity of the Fourth Grade Captain, we were advised that the captaincy is determined "by rotation on birthdays by scale of hangover that sort of thing."

JUNIORS

The SAJRU has abandoned the U18s comp. U17s now play with the U16s, while the oldest juniors may be eligible to play in seniors. However, some boys will, and have already, been ruled ineligible for both. We hope they'll stay with rugby, despite their forced year off.

U8	3 May OC 4 v Souths 3 (measured in tries scored)
U10	3 May OC 1 v Souths 9 (measured in tries scored).          This score looks rather misleading really as Southern Suburbs played with 10 players to our 7 for most of the duration of the match. The Old Cols U10's only have 8 players, &amp; we were 2 down Saturday, so we borrowed a player from Southern. Old Cols played very well. Some amazing tackles from Darren, who also scored our try. Nick Chatterway shows no fears, &amp; great work by D'Arcy &amp; Chester. Need to concentrate more on ripping balls &amp; driving in mauls.
U12	3 May OC 10 v Souths 5 - After the long, long off season the team had a morale boosting first victory against Southern Suburbs. Everyone in the team played well and demonstrated that, with a few more weeks of training, they will be a threat to the rest of the competition. 10 May Onkaparinga 15 v OC 5 - Outweighed as usual, the team gave the competition leaders a nasty shock by scoring first. And then only going down by 15-5 (3 tries to 1) after having to play with 1 player short for the whole of the second half. The majority of the team are new to the club or are having their first year in under 12 rugby. At the rate they are improving they will give Onkaparinga and even bigger shock next round. 17 May OC 26 v Burnside 17- The local derby proved to be a significant win for the team. Outweighed and out numbered (Burnside have combined with Elizabeth) the team looked like it was going to be in for a long day. While we scored first the weight of the Burnside team took its toll during the first half. At the break we were 1 try down. However, our well balanced pack and an increasingly well disciplined backline started to come into its own. In conjunction with some accurate conversion kicking (and even after a disallowed try) we emerged the winners by 9 clear points: 4 tries (3 converted) to 3 tries (1 conversion). 24 May OC 10 v Brighton 15 - Unfortunately, the team had a few injuries and illnesses so we could only just field the minimum nine players against last year's competition winners. Once again the team surprised us by going "toe to toe" (try to try) with Brighton right up until the final minutes when they scored the winning try. Even then the team had one last ditch effort with a penalty, only metres from the Brighton line. Brighton managed to hold on to win by 1 try. Even though the scoreboard shows a loss the team proved to itself that, with its full compliment, it can add Brighton to the list of teams that can be beaten in the next round.
U14	3 May OC 0 v Brighton 24 - We started the new season with a new combination and an overwhelming loss to a physically intimidating Brighton. The portents were not good! But this form was reversed in dramatic style in the next two games. 10 May Onkaparinga 0 v OC 43 - This game saw OCs journey to not so sunny Onkaparinga. Right from the start it was a different side from the week before with commitment and organisation, especially at the first series of rucks where the clear out was fast and effective. The work was quickly worked up the field for Will Sadler to cross for a try. OCs dominated from the restart, sending the ball wide for new boy Kabil who showed a clean pair of heels to cross out wide. With the boys on a roll, Tom and Alex both crossed before half time to establish an unexpected 24 – 0 lead. The expected second half Onka's revival did not arrive and OCs continued their domination at the break down and with tries to Tom, Kabil and Alex. The final result was a very impressive victory. 17 May Burnside 5 v OC 24 - It looked as if it would be a tough outing against neighbors Burnside at Parkinson Oval. It was clear from early in the game that Burnside would try to dominate through their impressive forwards, especially their number 8. However, aggressive defending and belief borne from the win over Onka's the previous week had OCs matching Burnside up front. Having weathered the initial encounters, OCs worked the ball wide for speed demon Kabil to cross the line for the first score of the game. Hard work from a series of mauls and rucks gave Alex the opportunity to score under the posts and all of a sudden it was 12 – nil! Early in the second half, w/quick and well timed passing by the centres along their own 22 sucked in the defense and released Kabil who showed his pace and elusive running to leave defenders (and team mates) stranded and scored under the posts. Although OCs scrum and lineout were not exactly brilliant, the boys set well on Burnside's 22 and Alex took the chance to peel off the back of the scrum for a good blind side try. With a commanding 24 to nil lead and a quarter of the game to run, Burnside raised the pressure and although the defense was heroic (especially one try saving tackle from Jack Biggs) it was inevitable that the homeside would score, which their imposing No. 8 did. But it was all too late. OCs ran out 24 – 5 winners. A rousing rendition of the club song blasting from the change-rooms rounded off a great team effort.
U17	3 May OC 8 v Elizabeth 13 - Scorers – Tim LePoidevan (try), Tom Collett (field goal). The game started well with an excellent try from Tim LePoidevan. There were some excellent runs from Oliver Greenwell, Henry Boylan and Rob Werner. Tension erupted, and an OC player was given a 10 minute rest. Overall great game with some very hard rucks and mauls.

3 MAY 2003 – OLD COLLEGIANS 20 v SOUTHERN SUBURBS 0

This was a hard game from beginning to end. Souths made hard work for us in both rucks and scrums. An opportunistic try by Robbie “Buzzer off – this one is mine” Porteous gave the southern onslaught something to think about after charging down a Souths kick (if not how the hell that happened). College followed up soon afterwards with a long range try by Marc Fullager after a successful centre switch. The second half was a scrumming nightmare for Souths as College showed that we can not only win our own ball but push Souths off their own ball too. The good work by a committed forward pack and further good ball handling in the backline rewarded tries to Damian Johnstone and a 2nd to Marc Fullager. We are on the board with a comprehensive first win of the season. Well done to the 2nd grade! Best on Ground: Rob Porteous.

10 MAY 2003 – NORTH TORRENS 7 v OLD COLLEGIANS 10

College dominated the first half as we starved the Torrens boys of any ball possession. College was winning all lineouts thanks to Bernard “The Air up There” Hickey (This altitude light-headedness could possibly account for Bernard nearly taking his jersey home after the match. We ran immaculately structured game for the whole 1st half but never converted our hard work into points. We started the 2nd half with a well deserved try from “Mullet” Fudali. Unfortunately the wheels seemed to come off the collegians onslaught until Torrens scored and converted their try. This was the turning point in the match – College spurred into action with a commitment to break the line. Minutes later College replied with a try by Major Mick Renfrey. This victory proves that 2nds have the heart and courage to pull through. Best on Ground: Bernard Hickey.

17 MAY 2003 – UNIVERSITY 31 v OLD COLLEGIANS 0

This was a mess from beginning to end which started on Thursday training attempting to organize 4 teams at 4 different locations whilst accounting for reserves and injuries. Put simply: a logistics nightmare. The game itself was very scrappy with College never putting on an attack of meaning. This was due to the fact that our recycling was abysmal which allowed the defense to restructure and make the following recycle abysmal, etc. etc. This game was good to have early in the season since it showed us these critical areas of our game and subsequently what we need to improve. Our defense was tight such that all of their tries came from well placed grubber kicks through our defensive line. College dominated all set plays giving us quality ball. There were many Collegians which had an exceptional game hopefully next time we will do it together. Watch out Uni – we’ll reverse the score next time. Best on Ground: Leigh “Lefty” Marsland.

WOMEN'S RUGBY

- THE FROCS -

The Frocs have suffered from a few injuries, losing Lusia Raikiwasa in the trial match (out for four weeks) and Imogen Hume in the first game of the season (out for at least eight weeks). Imogen had just been elected vice captain and leader of the forwards, too. Zoë Woodstock will ably fill that position until Imogen returns. Otherwise, the Frocs have been playing well and although they have won only one of their first four games, they are competing strongly and all games have been closer than the scores suggest. Thanks go to guest coaches Stewie Douglas, James Bradley and Rob Sadler! The Frocs are particularly pleased to have played two 15 aside games, in contrast to the entire season of 10 aside in 2002. A number of the girls have been selected to play for SA in June, including Tiana Hume, Lusia Raikiwasa, Liz Dean, Elysha Skipper and Tara Naige.
