1st Grade, 4th Grade, Women, U11s, U14s and U16s

1st Grade: Old Collegians 28 v Woodville 5 - Best Player: Andy Farquharson
2nd Grade: Old Collegians 17 v Woodville 7 - Best Player: Quentin Manuel
 Women's, 3rd Grade and 4th Grade - Bye

U8s: Old Collegians 25 v Vikings 25 The U8s had an exciting fun game, sharing the ball around the team – showing the skills that they had learned during the season and getting five very good tries. After the game they celebrated the season in the clubrooms.

U9s: Old Collegians 55 v Vikings 15 A fast scoring game by Old Colls, an excellent way to end the season. A fine game by Lachlan Pridham, Ryan Foll and Cameron Andrews. Some U8s helped out the U9s when they had finished their game.

U11s: Old Collegians 20 v Vikings 22 An exciting game of two halves. Old Colls led at half-time but the Vikings came back in the second half to win in the last minute. Good games by Paddy Macklin, Stewart Nutt and Darren Pinkerton. Player of the Day was Ross Andrews who dominated the halfback position on the field.

U12s: Old Collegians 33 v Vikings 24 Perhaps their best win of the year, showing a lot of confidence and ball handling skills. Excellent game by Patrick Brooker, Chris Russell, Brice Nairn and Chester Armstrong. The usual U11s helped out the U12s.

U14s: Old Collegians 103 v Vikings 0 A one-sided game. Old Colls totally dominated the smaller Vikings team. All players excelled. The team showed itself to be confident and a well drilled team and are looking forward to the Finals.

U16s: Old Collegians 69 v Vikings 5 With Souths/Vikings only able to field 13 players (reduced to 12 in the second half) the resultant space was too much of an invitation for our much faster, hard running backs who put on 11 tries to one in this decidedly one side match. To Souths/Vikings credit their pack held up well in the scrum but our forwards dominated at the clean out and in open play - prop James Marshall making one notable 20 m dash. Nick Walker was good in the line out and Andrew Bradley tackled well. The try scorers were Robbie Bell (4), Jamie Foster (4), Kabbie (2) and Sam Berketa (1). Conversions by Jack Macklin (5), Robbie Bell and Jason Leonardis one each. For the record Robbie Bell scored 114 points for the home and away rounds (22 tries, 2 conversions). So it on to the finals next Sunday

U18s: Old Collegians 0 v Vikings 5 A very close game that was finished early, due to two serious injuries that occurred in the same passage of play to Simon Kenny and Rory Sheppard. At the time Old Colls were in control of the game and it was a sad way to finish the season when all players had put so much effort in.

Second Grade - Mark Sioisi

1st Grade - Charlie Sheppard in the line out

Under 18s
